

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we confess our impatience.
We confess that often we desire answers more than insight and wisdom.
We are reluctant to ask questions because we fear what others may think of us.
We believe all people should be heard and their opinions honored,
but we are hesitant to raise our own voices
and share the stirrings of our hearts.
We decide not to participate or raise our concerns, so nothing ever changes.
We confess that we have allowed the voices of intolerance and hatred to speak unchallenged.
Forgive us, O God, when we become overly preoccupied with our yesterdays and our tomorrows.
Forgive us for paying too much attention to our exterior life while giving little credence to the inner teacher within us, our conscience, our faith.
Help us to live more fully in this present moment and guide us beside your still waters of grace and mercy.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Here these words of assurance from Romans 8:38-39: "For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Friends, believe the Good News!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen.

OUR RESPONSE TO GOD

*AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In spite of many unanswered questions. . .

I believe in the living God, the joy of the universe,
who is the pulse and purpose of all things seen and unseen,
who from the dust of earth calls up living beings to be children of eternity,
who through countless ages has provided for us many liberators and tirelessly seeks to bring victory out of defeat and life out of decay.

In spite of many unanswered questions . . .

I believe in Jesus the Christ, God's Son, who is bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh,
who took upon himself the healing of the human race,
who bearing the burden of our sins went to Golgotha carrying his cross, who was betrayed, crucified, dead and buried in a borrowed tomb,
who on the third day was found to be gloriously alive,
and who, today, meets us in places we least expect.

In spite of many unanswered questions . . .

Westminster Presbyterian Church
Charlottesville, Virginia

I believe in the Holy Spirit of God,
within and among all who cherish Christ and his way,
who brings hope out of despair, love out of apathy, and joy out of sorrow,
who unceasingly regenerates and reforms the church that it may always be the contemporary body of the risen Christ, loving the world through prayer, word and deed.

In spite of many unanswered questions . . .

I believe that even I am caught up in the resurgent life of Christ Jesus, and that nothing in life or death can separate me from his love and joy.

In spite of many unanswered questions ...

I believe.
