

CALL TO CONFESSION

CONFESSION OF SIN

You call us to service and obedience, to be your eyes and hands and voices in this world,
yet we see with limited vision, hide our hands, and shut our mouths.
We are distracted by shiny exteriors and drawn to outer beauty.
Open our eyes to the injustice, hate, and suffering that is often hidden from view.
We grab more of the world's resources than we need and then refuse to share.
Open our hands not only in generosity, but also in love and fellowship, to all who you draw near.
We talk and talk, offering advice and sharing knowledge, but are silent when asked to share the truths you lay upon our hearts,
and we confuse words for action.
Forgive us. Forgive our blindness, our inaction, and our silence.
