New Testament

Acts 2:42-47
They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

verses 1-3 & 5

Bicentennial

1 As when the shepherd calls his sheep, they know and heed his voice,
2 With joyful lips we sing to you our praise and gratitude
3 Is not the cup we bless and share the blood of Christ out-poured?
4 The mystery of your presence, Lord, no mortal tongue can tell:
5 You give yourself to us, O Lord; then self-less let us be, so when you call your family, Lord, we follow and rejoice.

that you should count us worthy, Lord, to share this heavenly food.
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare our oneness in the Lord?
whom all the world cannot contain comes in our hearts to dwell.
to serve each other in your name in truth and charity.

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

So between the death of Christ and the Last Day, it is only by a gracious anticipation of the last things that Christians are privileged to live in visible fellowship with other Christians. It is by the grace of God that a congregation is permitted to gather visibly in this world to share God’s word and sacrament….It is grace — nothing but grace — that we are allowed to live in community.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together
