Charge and Benediction

Postlude Rondo Giuseppe Gherardeschi

1 O Mas - ter, let me walk with thee
 2 Help me the slow of heart to move
 3 Teach me thy pa - tience, still with thee
 4 In hope that sends a shin - ing ray

in low - ly paths of ser - vice free;
 by some clear, win - ning word of love;
 in clos - er, dear - er com - pa - ny,
 far down the fu - ture's broad - ening way;

tell me thy se - cret; help me bear the teach me the way - ward feet to stay, and in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in in peace that on - ly thou canst give, with strain of toil, the fret of care.

 guide them in the home - ward way.
 trust that tri - umphs o - ver wrong.
 thee, O Mas - ter, let me live.

In honestly admitting the limits of human ability, this prayerful hymn does not seek a sense of God's presence for self-comfort but for strength and companionship in pursuing the tasks that God sets before us. The author specifically chose this tune to accompany his words.

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

Scripture Meditation

Isaiah 55:1-5 (Robert Alter, trans)

Oh, everyone who thirsts go to the water, and who has no silver,

buy food and eat.

Go and buy food without silver and at no cost, wine and milk.

Why should you weigh out silver for what is not bread and your substance for what does not sate?

Listen well to Me and eat goodly things, and you shall enjoy lavish fare.

Bend your ear and come to Me,

listen and be revived,

and I will make with you a perpetual pact,

the faithful kindness shown to David.

Look, I made him witness to the peoples, prince and commander of the peoples.

Look to a nation you knew not you shall call,

and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, for the sake of the Lord your God and Israel's Holy One, for God made you glorious.

Seek the Lord where God can be found,

call to God where God is near.
